EVIDENCE IS

COMPLETED.

Noted San Bernardino Case

Nears Its End.

Wife and Woman Friend Pay for Defense.

Physician Tells of Pitiful

Condition of Woman.

MONA LISA A LOST LENORE.

San Bernardino, Nov. 23.—

With rapidity that never before has marked an important criminal case

in this city, the evidence in the trial of Dr. Arthur W. McDavit, charged with the abduction of Miss Jessie Mc-Donald, a schoolgirl, was completed late this afternoon. Argument of counsel will begin in the morning, and the probability is that by noon

the case will be given to the jury.

McDavit may know his fate before night.

The haste with which the case was brought up to its present status was occasioned by a crowded court calendar,

and a request from the bench

that opposing counsel proceed as fast

as possible.

With the cross-examination of Miss

McDonald over, the prosecution rested

its case, and the defense immediately began the examination of its witnesses.

Mrs. McDavit, wife of the prisoner, was called and testified that her husband had been home every night except two in July and August. Today was the first time the wife and husband had met since the latter's arrest

in August, but neither showed any sign of recognition.

She testified that she had raised most of the money used for the defense of her husband, but admitted that another woman had also contributed.

One important advantage for the prosecution was scored late today

when the court refused to admit as evidence several letters said to have been written by Miss McDonald to McDavit, prior to her alleged imprisonment in the room next to McDavit's office. The defense made a strong effort to have these letters admitted and read to the jury, but was overruled

by Judge Oster.

William Lotz, a brother of Mrs.

McDavit, was then called, and testified that on the two nights in July and August that McDavit was absent from home he had been with the witness on a hunting trip.

Mrs. T. G. Kelly and James Smith

testified that they had been in Dr.

McDavit's office in July, August and September, 1910, and that the door leading to the small room had been opened on each occasion, but they did not see Miss McDonald there. Miss

McDonald testified she was taken to this room in May, 1910.

Dr. J. A. Mancha then testified to the pitiful existence of the girl. He said he was the only occupant of the building, aside from Dr. McDavit, that knows of her presence there.

"I implored her to go home," he said. "She seemed afraid to do so, and her appeals to me to keep secret her whereabouts were so pitiful that I did so, but now I am sorry that I did."

McDavit was then called to the stand, much to the surprise of the big crowd in the courtroom. His testimony closed the case. His statement was brief, and secured but little attention from the prosecution. He practically confessed.

"Not once, however, after July 1,

did I commit the crime with which I am charged," he said.

Because of a change in the criminal law of the State, it was necessary for the prosecution to prove that Mc-

Davit was guilty of the crime charged against him after July 1, 1911. The defense in its examination of the prisoner did not go back of this date,

but the court permitted the prosecution to go back over a period of five years in its questioning of the witness.

The defense made no resistance to this ruling.

During the proceedings of today it developed that the mysterious man

"Bill," referred to by Miss McDavit

in her testimony yesterday, and who she said, spoke of her as "The Chick,"

was a bartender and friend of Mc-

Davit. Kafer was subpoenaed as a witness, and was in court, but was not called to the stand.

SNOW Buries UNCUT WHEAT.

Thousands of Acres Under a Heavy

Mantle of Snow and Will Serve as Fertilizer.

RECEIVED WIRE TO THE TIMES.

GLENDIVE (Mont.), Nov. 23.—

[Exclusive Dispatch.] As a result of the unprecedented fall of snow in Dawson county early in the season

thousands of acres of wheat are under a heavy mantle of snow, and while the snow has saved the greater portion of the crop, it is feared, this condition also applies to much flax

which will be plowed under and left to rot. The ground for next season's crop on the bench lands cultivated in the last year or two by dryland farmers. The loss in the wheat crop will fall particularly heavy, it is feared.

On the thirteen-mile Deer Creek and seven-mile districts, according to thrasher who have returned here, acres upon acres of uncut grain are buried under snow.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CINCINNATI, Nov. 23.—[Exclusive

geles was one of the thirty-three beneficiaries in the will filed today of Mrs.

Floris Armstrong Sackett, a wealthy woman. Alice Sigerson is a cousin of Mrs. Sackett, and is left $5000. In addition, the will directs that all her relatives be given $1000 apiece, in which she also will share. Other California beneficiaries are Mrs. Fannie Shillinger Bartlett of Pasadena, Cal.,

who is left $10,000, and H. J. Arm-

Why are there so many failures in the treatment of rheumatism?

Why are so many sufferers resigned to a life of pain, despairing of a permanent cure?

Unless the blood is weak and impure, rheumatism cannot get a foothold. When it does the thin and impure blood is not strong enough to overcome the poisons alone. It must be strengthened and purified. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are the best blood-building medicine you can take. They make new blood with every dose and promptly check further progress of the disease. They make the blood so pure and strong that not the least trace of rheumatism remains.

Mrs. E. Olsen, of No. 587 Williams avenue, Portland, Ore., says: "I suffered from a bad attack of rheumatism which caught my hands and feet and made them swell. The doctor prescribed medicine and sent me to bed. While there felt a little better but as soon as I got up, was as bad as ever. In fact a little worse and one morning I could not open my hand. I was greatly discouraged and of course felt sick and had no ambition for anything. By chance I read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and decided to try them. After taking one box I felt better and when I had taken nine boxes was completely cured and felt like a new woman."

A valuable booklet, "Dis-eases of the Blood," containing helpful information will be sent upon request.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes $2.50. Write Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

SMALL FLAGS FOR VOTERS.

The Times has arranged to present every voter who calls at its office, No. 531 South Spring street and No. 118 South Broadway, between now and election day, with a small American flag. This miniature flag is the emblem of the Citizens' Campaign Committee, and it identifies the voters who stand for the constructive American principles of government rather than the destructive un-American doctrine of the Socialists.

A Witness.

WARNS AGAINST M'CARTHY RULE.

SAN FRANCISCO TELLS WHAT IT DID IN THAT CITY.

Wrecked Industries and Impoverished Working Classes and Set City Back for Years—Hay Region Condition Benefited Los Angeles and Socialist Success Will Harm.

Writing to a member of the Citizens' Committee from San Francisco this week, J. W. Treadwell of the J. W. Treadwell Realty Company of that city, makes these timely observations on the Los Angeles fight against McCarthy style union labor domination and socialism:

"According to the report of Labor Commissioner Stafford, San Francisco and bay cities had in 1904 over 4600 factories and in 1916 (January 31) we had less than 3000. From the same report I find that in the iron trades we had at that time over 20,000 men against less than 5000 in 1916. It may be remarked that we have even less at this date. This was due to the McCarthy rule. It might be suggested that the fire was the principle cause of the great falling off in these industries. While it is true that San Francisco proper lost many from that cause, most of them went to other bay ports, which is covered in the report referred to. 'San Francisco add bay cities.' The loss of the ship yards since the election of E. E. Schmidt, the factories have gradually, but surely closed or else in most cases reduced the number of men employed."

"The Union Iron Works, by the way, at one time employed over 6000 men at good wages and now they only employ about 500 to 700."

"Your city, in my opinion, has been benefited by the bad conditions in our city referred to. Your growth has been remarkable. Is it possible at this time that your people would knowingly follow in our footsteps? If they do, your population will decrease into poverty. Here are those who lowered and capital will shun your city. We in San Francisco can speak for the rest of the world."

In a statement issued in San Francisco:

DISPLAY THE STARRY FLAG.

The Times hopes that the display of the Stars and Stripes by patriotic citizens will be general in the next two weeks of the campaign. Socialist speakers have denounced it as a "ten cent rag." Some of them trample it under their feet when they orate. Wear a little flag; hang out the flag at your home. Make the whole city bright and glorious with flags, flags, everywhere.

Since Mr. Treadwell commented upon the fact that the city of Los Angeles has been getting worse year by year.

"Conditions have been getting worse year by year.

"There is a large district south of the city which is being used for factory uses. We have hundreds of acres of land north of Market that can only be improved as our population grows. How can our population grow when our factory industries are decreasing at the rate of 65 per cent. in six years?"

Lively Alexander Clubs Organized Last Night at a Number of Places Block System of Canvassing.

"Incredible."

JOE HARRIMAN'S PROMISES THAT HE CAN FULFILL.

[FROM STATEMENT OF FACTS ISSUED BY MUNICIPAL LEAGUE.]

THE Socialist platform and the speeches of Mr. Harriman give us a long list of municipal enterprises that are to be undertaken if they come into power. Here are those in the Socialist platform: (1) Extension of water system to cover San Pedro, Wilmington and all the western and northern outlying district; (2) all gas plants; (3) ice plant; (4) municipal laundry; (5) telephone system, supplying and driving out existing systems; (6) municipal farm to use overflow sewer water; (7) cold storage warehouses; (8) railway to Santa Monica; (9) cross-town car lines to be owned and operated by the city; (10) resort at Terminal Island; (11) free public baths; (12) public library building; (13) all other promises the following which are either now under way or are planned for by the present administration; (12) railway to the harbor; (14) electric light and power system; (15) garbage plant; (16) dredging and wharves at the harbor; (17) city hospital.

Mr. Harriman (Record, September 29) makes a number of promises on his own hook: (1) Buy the land in the San Fernando Valley and put the Owens River water on it and sell at a profit. (2) "The street cars of the city must be owned by the public and run at cost." (3) "The industries of equal public nature" to be taken over and run by the city. This might include a good many not enumerated above.

It is difficult or perhaps impossible, to check these up, item by item, and say just what they will cost but the total may be put somewhere between one hundred and two hundred million dollars. According to the Auditor's report, October 10, 1911, this city now has bonds outstanding and sold amounting to net $24,923,237.50, and outstanding as yet unpaid, $16,716,466, making a total of $35,641,887.50 of debt. The charter allows us an unusually high debt limit, which is 3 per cent. of assessment roll for ordinary city purposes, and 10 per cent. for the purchase or construction of municipal utilities. Lumping this altogether it shows a theoretical margin available of $13,945,165.50. We may theoretical for this reason. The city's known future necessities and the completion of enterprises already begun, like harbor, electric lighting, municipal railway, etc., will eat up the whole of this margin. Theoretically a man is able to borrow any amount of money, but practically he cannot; and it is much the same with the city. The city market should grow strong and if our city government continues to be of no use to inspire the confidence of investors, it will be the case. Bonds to carry out the projects contemplated by the present city administration, but more than that would be difficult or impossible until the assessment roll becomes much larger, which is a matter of the future and always uncertain.

In other words, this vast budget of promises are impossible of fulfillment. It is scarcely credible that Mr. Harriman and other leaders of his party are so uninformed as to believe this possible. What kind of a cause is it that seeks to put into power on the false hopes of the ignorant and the credulous?

One of the many wild positions advanced in the Socialist platform is the rearrangement of the business center to make it more convenient for everybody. "We favor," says the platform, "a rearrangement of the business center of the city, conserving the interests of the consumer and neutralizing the power of Big Business to raise rates and to falsify and alluring advertisements to control the bulk of the business." What does this mean? Is a city council under a Socialist administration to have power to pull up the big buildings by the roots and transplant them to various parts of town so they will be handy for everybody. Is the city to condemn great tracts of business property (it can only condemn for actual city use) and erect new buildings? This is another proposition which it realized at all would run into another million or so. The question the reader will ask himself is whether people who advocate such wild and impossible policies can safely be trusted with the serious affairs of our city.

The Rheumatism Question

Why are there so many failures in the treatment of rheumatism?

Why are so many sufferers resigned to a life of pain, despairing of a permanent cure?

Because rheumatism defies any treatment that does not build up and purify the blood. The poisons of rheumatism are in the blood and it is only through the blood that the disease can be fought successfully.

Unless the blood is weak and impure, rheumatism cannot get a foothold. When it does the thin and impure blood is not strong enough to overcome the poisons alone. It must be strengthened and purified. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are the best blood-building medicine you can take. They make new blood with every dose and promptly check further progress of the disease. They make the blood so pure and strong that not the least trace of rheumatism remains.

After taking one box I felt better and when I had taken nine boxes was completely cured and felt like a new woman."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are the blood's greatest aid in overcoming rheumatism, anemia, chlorosis, headaches and after-effects of the grip and fevers.

A valuable booklet, "Diseases of the Blood," containing helpful information will be sent upon request.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

On February 14 of this year he was married to Miss Gundeluppe Marquez. Though he was still living with wife No. 2 at the time, he was married with a license which he had secured July 10, 1909, under the name of Edward Braun. Why he had it so long unused is not known. There appears to be reason to believe that there may be still a fourth woman in the case, though the detectives have not yet located her.

Brown was arraigned on the bigamy charge before Justice Young and held under $3000 bonds.

German, Spanish, English in Hot Marital Rotes.

N. E. Brown, a musician arrested Wednesday afternoon on a charge of non-support, was accidentally brought face to face in an elevator with two of his three wives yesterday. He would have fallen to the floor from shock and surprise had he not been supported by Constable Woodbury. The women were in charge of Deputy Constable Duarte.

It had been planned that they should confront Brown in Deputy District Attorney Joo's office, but the accidental meeting precipitated matters. When Brown reached Joo's office he was so unnerved and so weak he had to be helped to a chair. There

Mrs. Brown No. 3

A polyglot marital tangle that came to light yesterday when Nelson E. Brown was arrested on a minor charge of non-support, was complicated by the fact that he has three wives. One lives in Bloomington, Ill., who speaks only German, his own native tongue. No. 2, in this city, speaks English and Spanish but no German. No. 3, also of Los Angeles, speaks only Spanish. Brown speaks all three. He admitted the bigamy charge in English.

he admitted both women were his wives. There is still another wife, No. 1. She lives in Bloomington, Ill., it is said, with her 7-year-old daughter. She is German and cannot speak English. Brown is a German and can speak German, English and Spanish fluently. His second and third wives are natives of Mexico. Mrs. Brown No. 2 is an almost perfect type of Spanish belle. She can talk English as well as Spanish. Mrs. Brown No. 3 cannot speak nor understand English.

Brown's undoing came through a quarrel he had with Mrs. Brown No. 2. He sought the aid of the police to have her arrested on a charge of non-support. She refused to recognize the matrimonial claims of the former, or permit her to enter the house. Mrs. Brown No. 2 stood on the sidewalk until Brown came. Then there was another scene, both women claiming the man.

In the District Attorney's office yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Brown No. 2 refused to converse with Mrs. Brown No. 3, except to say things in Spanish. Finally Mrs. Brown No. 3 declared she would not appear unless Brown No. 2 is in the house. Mrs. Brown No. 2 is an almost perfect type of Spanish belle. She can talk English as well as Spanish. Mrs. Brown No. 3 cannot speak nor understand English.

Two youths, Louis G. Brooks and Thomas H. Barkley, of this city; Wesley B. Parker, Ventura; Lawrence Mathieu, Lloyd Goepfert, Albert G. Simpson, George Wolf and Edward J. Richards, San Francisco, and J. W. Richards, Stanford University, are the candidates entering competitive preliminary examination held in this city Tuesday and yesterday for the final examinations and appointments to Annapolis.

Nelson E. Brown.

Fifty new veniremen will be in court this morning, but there are three or four of the venire still available for service. Judge Bordwell is doing everything in his power to expedite the selection of the jury under the law and for several days past he has been open court at 9 o'clock instead of 10 o'clock, each morning. JUROR VISITS BROTHER.

Adjournment was taken at an early hour yesterday afternoon because of the absence of Juror Sexton, who was allowed to visit his half brother, and also to transact some necessary business. He was in the custody of a deputy sheriff to make sure that no one approached him, on any forbidden topics. To make sure that his absence would not infringe any rights of the defendant, a stipulation was made by the defense covering the case. The same process followed in the case of Juror Green, who was permitted to return to his home in Pomona, to see his wife. She is quite sick, according to doctor's report.

The court has the right at any time to the taking of testimony, to excuse a juror on a minor charge of non-support, was complicated by the fact that he has three wives. One lives in Bloomington, Ill., who speaks only German, his own native tongue. No. 2, in this city, speaks English and Spanish but no German. No. 3, also of Los Angeles, speaks only Spanish. Brown speaks all three. He admitted the bigamy charge in English.

he admitted both women were his wives. There is still another wife, No. 1. She lives in Bloomington, Ill., it is said, with her 7-year-old daughter. She is German and cannot speak English. Brown is a German and can speak German, English and Spanish fluently. His second and third wives are natives of Mexico. Mrs. Brown No. 2 is an almost perfect type of Spanish belle. She can talk English as well as Spanish. Mrs. Brown No. 3 cannot speak nor understand English.

Brown's undoing came through a quarrel he had with Mrs. Brown No. 2. He sought the aid of the police to have her arrested on a charge of non-support. She refused to recognize the matrimonial claims of the former, or permit her to enter the house. Mrs. Brown No. 2 stood on the sidewalk until Brown came. Then there was another scene, both women claiming the man.

In the District Attorney's office yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Brown No. 2 refused to converse with Mrs. Brown No. 3, except to say things in Spanish. Finally Mrs. Brown No. 3 declared she would not appear unless Brown No. 2 is in the house. Mrs. Brown No. 2 is an almost perfect type of Spanish belle. She can talk English as well as Spanish. FIVE MAY GROW TO SEVEN TODAY

Peremptories Expected to Add Two Men to Jury.

Six Weeks Employed to Half Fill the Box.

Case to Be Rushed Through from Now to End.

For the third time since the beginning of the McNamara case, the jury box was filled yesterday afternoon. Peremptory challenges will be exercised this morning by both the state and the defense. While there are various conjectures as to the men who will be eliminated from the permanent panel, it is believed that the state will not use more than one of its peremptory challenges. The defense is expected to exercise at least four of the temporary jurors who qualified in spite of challenge. Out of the seven now seated in the box with the five permanent men, it is believed that two will be secured for the final panel. However, this will not be decided until this morning.

Fifty new veniremen will be in court this morning, but there are three or four of the venire still available for service. Judge Bordwell is doing everything in his power to expedite the selection of the jury under the law and for several days past he has been open court at 9 o'clock instead of 10 o'clock, each morning. Public Service: City Hall, Courts.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The Streets and Boulevards Commission of the City Council has agreed to recommend to the Council the passage of an ordinance placing Monteta avenue in the conduit district in which there must be no telegraph poles or overhead wires.

A Superior Court judge found yesterday that too much mother-in-law wrecked a woman's happiness, granted her a divorce, and ordered that the husband appear in court so he can divide their property.

At the City Hall.

MONETA AVENUE
POLES TO FALL.RESIDENCE CONDUIT DISTRICT
FIGHT SUCCESSFUL.

City Electrician and Council have agreed to place Monteta avenue in the conduit district, or will be as soon as the necessary ordinance can be passed.

Monteta-avenue owners won their fight to have the poles come down on their street yesterday and the electric wiring of that avenue is to be placed in conduits. Just when it was rather hard to say and no city officials yesterday afternoon could be found to give an approximate date, but Monteta avenue from Thirty-seventh street to Manchester avenue is now in the conduit district, or will be as soon as the necessary ordinance can be passed.

It was pointed out at a meeting of the Streets and Boulevards Committee that under the ordinance the city can place in a conduit district only two additional miles of streets every year and that its policy is not to go to the outside or new districts for such streets but to take them from the heart of the city. Deputy City Attorney Robertson informed the committee that the limit to the number of miles of conduits to be ordered every year is merely a matter of ordinance and another ordinance would be all that would be necessary to enable the Council to add as many miles as it might please to the conduit district. On this statement there was no further opposition and Monteta avenue won.

This subject of conduit districts will come before the City Council in a few days again on a report from the City Electrician, who, accompanied by members of the City Council, has spent considerable time in inspecting the conduits in the district. The report will specify two miles of downtown streets that will have to be brought into the conduit district this year.

PARK GOES OVER.

NORMAL SCHOOL SITE FIRST.

There is to be a three-week rest on the subject of Piedmont Park and lumber interests that are opposed to it. A large number of residents of that neighborhood appeared in the Council chamber yesterday to discuss the question before the Public Welfare Committee. The usual speakers brought the matter up, the usual points were applauded, and the park proposition made some progress, apparently.

Highland Park believes that it has previously the inside track in regard to securing the site for the State Normal School and Attorney Eddie asked that discussion of the Piedmont Park plan be postponed until this normal school proposition shall have been disposed of.

For the first time the contending elements at Highland Park found something on which they could agree, and the postponement met with no opposition. There is some question as to whether the original park petition is before the Council in proper form and whether the protest against the normal school proposition is in the proper form. Robertson is to look into the legal questions raised and make a report.

WOMEN ENDANGERED.

WATER-TROUBLES ATTACKED.

An epidemic of glanders among the pet-horses of this city, the County Veterinarian Rowland and R. Sanderson of the Draymen's Association to present to the Mayor yesterday a petition from every veterinary surgeon and most of the teaming firms of the city, asking that the use of public watering-troughs be prohibited at once.

"Thirty-seven horses are said to have died from the disease since the beginning of the month," the petition is alarming, "says the petition, and public horse-trocks are known to be a potent factor in the spread of the disease." The petitioners want the troughs to be left open, however, so teamsters can use their own buckets.

The Mayor said he will send a message to the Council at once asking that immediate action be taken. "The necessity of action is evident," it is known that gladders can be transmitted to the human race and that it is fatal in such cases. It is not necessary that we shall wait until some man or woman shall have been attacked by this disease before taking action. We should act at once."

Playground Plans.

Another step was taken by the Playground Commission yesterday when the acquisition of the public playgrounds at Exposition Park. It is all a matter of obtaining such a lease of the property within the stipulated time that the commission can be subsequently disposed of by a change in administration, either of the city or the city. The City Attorney was directed to take the necessary ordinance.

Dance Hall License.

The Mayor's plan to give the Police Commission power to revoke the license of a dance hall if the person running it is not of good moral character was discussed by the Legislation Committee of the City Council yesterday and the commission was recommended to the Council for adoption next Tuesday. The City Attorney was directed to take the necessary ordinance.

City Hall Notes.

The Legislation Committee of the City Council has recommended that the freight and fare ordinance be placed on its passage as requested by the Board of Public Utilities. The tuberculosis test ordinance for which cows will be referred to the Council Tuesday without recommendation by the Legislation Committee. The committee wished to take a week to discuss it, but one of its advocates was so insistent that it was decided to send it back at once, although the committee directed that it report that at this time it is unable to recommend its passage.

The Streets and Boulevards Committee of the Council has decided that the Western-avenue entrance to Grand Park should be 300 feet in width. Proceedings for the condemnation of the necessary land will be commenced at once. The specifications have already been drawn, and the assessment district plans are in hand ready for discussion.

SHE MADE HOME,
ANOTHER RULED.WIFE'S DIVORCE SUIT BASED ON
MOTHER-IN-LAW'S ACTS.

Judge Asner Here Is Unusual and Aggravated Case of Cruelty and Gratitude—Orders Defendant to Appear in Court and Will Divide Property.

Gladys Woodard was granted a divorce from Rex B. Woodard by Judge Monroe in the Superior Court yesterday, because notwithstanding testimony that she worked like a man on their ranch near Hines, her mother-in-law usurped her right to manage the home.

Mrs. Woodard, whom the rigor of farm work made hard of hearing, testified, as did a youth employed on the place as a helper, that she worked afield, plowing and pitching hay, and milked the cows, and when anything went wrong she was abused by her husband. She said that they began their married life with little money and she helped to such good effect that soon they were on a ranch possessing nine cows.

Things finally became unbearable and she went away for a visit. Her mother-in-law wrote her, she must not return. Judge Monroe said: "This letter to the plaintiff from her mother-in-law shows the latter to be a mean and dictatorial. It was the plaintiff's home before she went there to live. It frequently happens a man must support his mother. But he must remember that his first duty is to his wife, when she is the kind of helpmate the plaintiff has shown herself to be. This is an unusual, aggravated case of extreme cruelty. I am going to grant the divorce."

Judge Monroe ordered Mrs. Woodard's attorney to have the defendant in court on the 29th inst., when he will examine Woodard as to the property he has accumulated since his marriage and divide it for the benefit of Mrs. Woodard and her three children.

THINKS POLICE BIASED.

GETS WRIT OF PROHIBITION.

Carrying his case over the heads of the Long Beach authorities, Carl Stanley, in the Superior Court yesterday, secured a writ of prohibition to block the drawing of a jury by the police of that city to try him on a charge of having illegally sold alcoholic beverages at the Hotel Virginia. Judge Hutton made the writ returnable next Monday.

Stanley's action grows out of the fight that has been going on since Long Beach an absolutely "dry" city. He makes Police Judge J. J. Hart defendant.

The plaintiff was arrested September 17, on complaint of Sgt. Gallimore, for selling liquor in violation of the Long Beach ordinance. He demurred to the charge before Judge Hart, but was overruled. He then pleaded not guilty, stood trial and the jury disagreed. Judge Hart set the case for retrial today.

It is recited by Stanley that he asked that some unprejudiced person, not a city official, summon the jury panel, but that Judge Hart declined the motion and charged Chief of Police Meyer with the duty.

Meyer delegated Patrolman E. F. Hemmick to summon the jury, according to Stanley, who avers that, not only Meyer, but every member of the police department is disqualified to hear the testimony, holding they cannot act with entire impartiality. This, the plaintiff asserts, deprives him of his fundamental rights under the Constitution.

The application for the writ is supported by an affidavit by a member of the firm of Williams, Goudge & Chandler, counsel for Stanley.

ESTATE DISAPPOINTS.

WIDOW ALLEGES FRAUD.

Before Judge Houser in the Superior Court, a jury was secured yesterday in the Pedgrift will case, in which the widow charged she was deceived by the late John Pedgrift, named executor by the will, from the estate to be worth only $48,000. Mrs. Pedgrift asks that the contract be nullified and she declared void, creating a contract by which she, having existed had Pedgrift died intestate.

In the Probate Court some time ago, Judge Rivers granted Mrs. Pedgrift a homestead and an allowance from the estate.

INTERESTS EMPLOYERS.

OPINION ON LIABILITY LAW.

Judge Gestrod in extra session of the Superior Court overruled the murder in the case of H. C. Newberry against the Alhambra Oil Tool Company, a $10,000 damage suit based in the recently effective Roseberry employers' liability law, yesterday. The case will now go to trial.

Newberry uses because of personal injuries alleged by a steam boiler while he was working on a steam boiler, which he charged was started by the blacksmith. He was helping with the freight and fare ordinance be placed on its passage as requested by the Board of Public Utilities. The tuberculosis test ordinance for which cows will be referred to the Council Tuesday without recommendation by the Legislation Committee. The committee wished to take a week to discuss it, but one of its advocates was so insistent that it was decided to send it back at once, although the committee directed that it report that at this time it is unable to recommend its passage.

The Streets and Boulevards Committee of the Council has decided that the Western-avenue entrance to Grand Park should be 300 feet in width. Proceedings for the condemnation of the necessary land will be commenced at once. The specifications have already been drawn, and the assessment district plans are in hand ready for discussion.

SHE MADE HOME,
ANOTHER RULED.WIFE'S DIVORCE SUIT BASED ON
MOTHER-IN-LAW'S ACTS.

Judge Asner Here Is Unusual and Aggravated Case of Cruelty and Gratitude—Orders Defendant to Appear in Court and Will Divide Property.

Gladys Woodard was granted a divorce from Rex B. Woodard by Judge Monroe in the Superior Court yesterday, because notwithstanding testimony that she worked like a man on their ranch near Hines, her mother-in-law usurped her right to manage the home.

Mrs. Woodard, whom the rigor of farm work made hard of hearing, testified, as did a youth employed on the place as a helper, that she worked afield, plowing and pitching hay, and milked the cows, and when anything went wrong she was abused by her husband. She said that they began their married life with little money and she helped to such good effect that soon they were on a ranch possessing nine cows.

Things finally became unbearable and she went away for a visit. Her mother-in-law wrote her, she must not return. Judge Monroe said: "This letter to the plaintiff from her mother-in-law shows the latter to be a mean and dictatorial. It was the plaintiff's home before she went there to live. It frequently happens a man must support his mother. But he must remember that his first duty is to his wife, when she is the kind of helpmate the plaintiff has shown herself to be. This is an unusual, aggravated case of extreme cruelty. I am going to grant the divorce."

Judge Monroe ordered Mrs. Woodard's attorney to have the defendant in court on the 29th inst., when he will examine Woodard as to the property he has accumulated since his marriage and divide it for the benefit of Mrs. Woodard and her three children.

PARK GOES OVER.

NORMAL SCHOOL SITE FIRST.

There is to be a three-week rest on the subject of Piedmont Park and lumber interests that are opposed to it. A large number of residents of that neighborhood appeared in the Council chamber yesterday to discuss the question before the Public Welfare Committee. The usual speakers brought the matter up, the usual points were applauded, and the park proposition made some progress, apparently.

Highland Park believes that it has previously the inside track in regard to securing the site for the State Normal School and Attorney Eddie asked that discussion of the Piedmont Park plan be postponed until this normal school proposition shall have been disposed of.

WOMEN ENDANGERED.

WATER-TROUBLES ATTACKED.

An epidemic of glanders among the pet-horses of this city, the County Veterinarian Rowland and R. Sanderson of the Draymen's Association to present to the Mayor yesterday a petition from every veterinary surgeon and most of the teaming firms of the city, asking that the use of public watering-troughs be prohibited at once.

"Thirty-seven horses are said to have died from the disease since the beginning of the month," the petition is alarming, "says the petition, and public horse-trocks are known to be a potent factor in the spread of the disease." The petitioners want the troughs to be left open, however, so teamsters can use their own buckets.

The Mayor said he will send a message to the Council at once asking that immediate action be taken. "The necessity of action is evident," it is known that gladders can be transmitted to the human race and that it is fatal in such cases. It is not necessary that we shall wait until some man or woman shall have been attacked by this disease before taking action. We should act at once."

Playground Plans.

Another step was taken by the Playground Commission yesterday when the acquisition of the public playgrounds at Exposition Park. It is all a matter of obtaining such a lease of the property within the stipulated time that the commission can be subsequently disposed of by a change in administration, either of the city or the city. The City Attorney was directed to take the necessary ordinance.

Dance Hall License.

The Mayor's plan to give the Police Commission power to revoke the license of a dance hall if the person running it is not of good moral character was discussed by the Legislation Committee of the City Council yesterday and the commission was recommended to the Council for adoption next Tuesday. The City Attorney was directed to take the necessary ordinance.

In Tight Hole.

SAW HIM DO IT
SAY OFFICERS.CHARGE POSTAL EMPLOYEE
WITH ROBBERY MAIL.

Inspectors Hide in Station and Watch Man at Work—When Surprised He Is Alleged to Have Confessed—Good Record of Five Years all for Naught.

Alfred Cohn, aged 24 years, of No. 2322 West Eighth street, an employee of the local postoffice, was taken into custody by Postoffice Inspectors Gray and Webster early yesterday morning, charged with robbing the mails. He was lodged in the County Jail.

At the time of his arrest Cohn was at work on the night shift at Station C. No. 523 South Los Angeles street. His previous record covered five years service at the general office and at Station D, Twenty-fourth and Hoover streets.

At intervals complaints have been received by Postmaster Harrison in regard to the disappearance of small sums of money posted from Station C. When the case was turned over to Inspectors Gray and Webster, action was taken. They hid themselves in the station near where Cohn was at work and saw him take three or four letters supposed to contain coin.

When arrested the officers say Cohn broke down and confessed, declaring he could not explain why he had done it. When asked, "What for?" he said: "Who knows?"

No large sums were involved in any of the stealing, several newspapers and stores suffering the theft of money sent either for short term subscriptions or for advertising. The total amount alleged to have been appropriated by Cohn is not definitely known. Postmaster Harrison said that several hundred dollars "cover the entire loss."

The downfall of Cohn is a source of surprise to his postal officers. Originally appointed in 1906 under the civil service rules, he has not missed a promotion in five years and he stood high in the local office. His salary was $100 a month and he had no family to support.

The preliminary examination of young Cohn will be held this morning before United States Commissioner Van Dyke. His case may be taken immediately to the grand jury now in session.

FIFTEEN TO THE BUSHEL.

Monster Potatoes Raised at Eagle Rock Astound Friends of Hotel Proprietor.

Fifteen potatoes to the bushel is the kind that C. C. Loomis, proprietor of the Anclutis, is displaying as the product of his Eagle Rock home. Loomis is an ardent amateur farmer and passes the greater part of his time in digging about the garden, when not at the hotel. He planted a few "apud" for family use on the hillside of his property and several days ago started to harvest the crop. Some of the potatoes are enormous. Yesterday Loomis brought one to the hotel weighing four pounds and five ounces, nearly half the size of an ordinary watermelon. Five potatoes completely filled his hand grip and he gave all but one of them away for potato bake parties.

If Loomis's potatoes averaged the same size, fifteen potatoes would more than fill a bushel basket while twenty-two or three of them would make a sack, which holds ninety pounds. Loomis has requested him to exhibit the stock at the Los Angeles Land Show.

The certificate which she saved from a fire. While cleaning house about two years ago, the certificate was carried to the fire with other papers to be burned. She was in time to rescue it. Portions of it had been destroyed, but the names could be plainly read.

Detective Zeigler testified that Smith had confessed to him that there had been a marriage ceremony between Smith and each of the four women who claimed him as her husband.

A HIGH KICKER.

RESTAURATEUR FINED.

Police Judge Ross said he is not a surgeon, but can tell the difference between a boot mark and one made by a chair and yesterday afternoon he fined Marcel Robinson, proprietor of the Larcis restaurant, No. 717 Central avenue, $10 for having kicked John Frier in the jaw.

Robinson said he ordered Frier out of the restaurant and Frier would not go. A tussle followed and Frier was injured in the leg. By the time he reached the police station to complain against Robinson there was a lump on his face almost as large as a baseball.

Robinson declared he had "tapped" Frier with his fist and Frier had fallen against a chair. Judge Ross fined the bench and examined Frier's face carefully. The fine resulted.

Fire Bug?

F. B. Eames, charged with having set fire to the home of Mrs. H. C. McCombs, No. 692 Wall street, Monday night, was arraigned in Police Court before Judge Ross yesterday afternoon and will be given a preliminary examination Wednesday. He was unable to furnish the $1500 bail demanded.

Fine Is Suspended.

Estelle Glicher, proprietress of a ladies' tailoring establishment at No. 44 South Broadway, appeared in the Police Court before Judge Ross yesterday afternoon and was given a suspended sentence for having violated the eight-hour law for women. She pleaded guilty and said that one of her girls had worked a little overtime to alter her when rushed with business. A fine of $50 was imposed and then suspended as there was no evidence that the law had been flagrantly violated.

Says Goods Are Good.

M. D. Herington, proprietor of a clothing store, who charged with having misrepresented the quality of his goods, appeared before Police Judge Ross yesterday afternoon and entered a plea of not guilty. He will be tried December 14.

May Go Free. ALLEGED BRIBE-TAKER CONTRITE.

SAYS HE CAN'T DO BUSINESS IN HIS OWN NAME.

Probation Recommended for Man Who One Time Was Candidate for Mayor and Stands Accused of Having Received Money on Promise to Give Police Protection.

After an exhaustive hearing regarding the granting of probation to Dr. J. W. Jones, charged with having received bribes to secure police protection for a disorderly house, Judge McCormick yesterday announced a continuance until tomorrow morning. Much of the testimony was a recitation of stories told in the case of Earl Bues, discredited member of the police department, who pleaded guilty to a similar charge in September, and was placed on probation for five years.

Asked by Judge McCormick what he would do if granted probation, Dr. Jones said:

"Life in the penitentiary would not make me suffer more than I already have. A short time ago I had a deal on to sell $1,000 worth of land. One of the parties through whom I obtained the option, came to me and asked if I ever ran for Mayor. I answered I had, although I knew what it meant. The next day the option was withdrawn. It was said the land was not in the market. But I read the following week that half of it had been sold. It has gotten to a point where I must now deal through other parties."

Jones declared that adversity was the cause of his downfall. He said he owes $2300 on his home and two years' taxes, and that his wife is seriously ill. When she got well, he said, he got sick and came to depend on the charity of friends.

Jones said that in connection with the bribery he never mentioned the police department at any time. Deputy District Attorney Blair put Addie Orth, to whom Jones guaranteed the police protection on the stand, and she testified that the defendant was untrue. On one occasion, she testified, Jones said to her: "I'm as strong as a horse with the police department. I could outdo anyone for anything short of murder."

She then said that he told her of a case where he got a woman out of the City Jail through the aid of Attorney Frank Dominguez, on a charitable procured from another physician.

At this Attorney Dominguez, who is appearing for Jones, demanded that the police department be mentioned in the indictment. He said: "I feel in justice bound to Jones and myself, to make this statement. It's true that Jones came to me with reference to a woman in the City Jail, who was suffering with cancer. I never suggested a dollar of compensation. I found what Jones told me was true. Police Judge Williams had committed her, and I explained that nothing could be done except to get a Governor's pardon, unless her life was really in danger."

"I abandoned the case then, but was appealed to a few days later by her husband, who told her would take the matter to the interest of humanity. I went to different police officials, and I found what Jones told me was true. Police Judge Williams, and finally secured the woman's release. "I myself paid for the automobile that took her from the jail, and gave her $25 out of my own pocket, to send her to her sister in Coalinga."

Referring to Jones as a "peanut" politician, Probation Officer Dods granted the defendant.

Sprague, was filed in the United States District Court yesterday, asking that Frederick Charlton, doing business at Nos. 1553-573 West First street, be declared a bankrupt. M'NAMARA TRIAL.

the court was not asking the kind of question preferred by the defense.

The objections amounted to little, for the talesman disqualified himself by several of his answers and was accused by the court for entertaining bias and prejudice against the substantial rights of the defendant.

George S. Blabee, a ranchman living near Lordsburg, was passed by the court by both sides. In response to questions by Darrow, the talesman said he had owned an orange grove for twenty years. He said his readings were not in the market, but that he was not interested in the discussions.

From what he read he stated he thought "strikes are carried too far." He said there were occasions when he believed strikes were right, but that other remedies should be exhausted before resorting to a strike. He stated he thought the metal workers' strike last year was not justified.

FAVORS DYNAMITE THEORY.

Blabee was very cautious in expressing his opinion as to the cause of the disaster. He thought the "unions might have had something to do with it," but was not at all certain. As between the gas and dynamite theories, he stated he favored the latter. He did not see the ruins until several weeks after the explosion.

When he saw did not lead him to form any additional ideas. From what he had read in the papers, Blabee said he entertained the impression that McNamara was guilty but he was perfectly willing to abide solely by the evidence. After a searching examination by Deputy Horton, Blabee was passed and took his seat as the eleventh juror.

J. H. Coke of Downey was next interrogated by Darrow. He stated he and most of his relatives were farmers. He came to California in 1885 and with the exception of several years spent in prospecting in Nevada, had passed the greater part of his life here.

When he first heard of the disaster to the Times Building, he said his first impression was that a gas explosion was the cause. One of his sons also entertained that opinion. Later reading of the papers inclining Coke to form the impression that dynamite was the agent used. He was away on a camping trip for several weeks after the disaster, consequently did not keep in close touch with circumstances surrounding the investigation.

Coke stated he had read what purported to be the confession of Orrie McNamara, but had not attached any great weight to it.

BIAS DENIED.

"Have you any opinion as to whether the defendant is guilty?" asked Darrow.

"Naturally I have formed slight impressions from reading that he is guilty," was the reply. But the talesman said he thought he could easily set aside any impressions he may have formed.

"Could you listen as sympathetically to evidence that it was a gas explosion as you could that the disaster was caused by dynamite?"

"I think so."

"And could you listen just as well to evidence of the defendant's innocence as to his guilt?"

"Yes."

"You had rather believe your fellow-man innocent than guilty, hadn't you?"

"I would, indeed."

The defense passed Coke for cause.

"And you have no prejudices that you are aware of?"

"No."

"You understand, don't you, that the State has rights as well as the defendant?"

"Yes."

"And you would have no hesitation in finding this defendant guilty if the evidence convinces you beyond a reasonable doubt?"

"None at all."

Coke said he was not opposed to circumstantial evidence and that he believed he could be a fair and impartial juror. He was passed by the State after Capt. Fredericks had been consulted.

Coke made the twelfth juror, but owing to the absence of Sexton, the jury box lacked one man. Both sides agreed to an early adjournment.

MEXICAN WEST COAST.
Irrigation Expert Says New Country Is Fertile in Soil and Possibilities. Investigating for Espee.

The irrigation projects of the Southwest are recognized as the most advanced in the world," said L. B. Perrin, of Twin Falls, Idaho, who is staying at the Angulus after a tour of the west coast of Mexico.

"Wherever irrigation has been vastly developed, it has been patterned in a measure after some of the projects of these sections, where most of the improvements have originated," he said.

Perrin is one of the first men in the Middle West to avail himself of the Carey land act, allowing the development of arid land by private persons. His holdings at one time exceeded a million acres, near Twin Falls, most of which he has placed under water and made fruitful.

Perrin's tour through Mexico was planned by E. H. Harriman long before the death of the railroad magnate, and he went down the west coast looking after the most available sites for large irrigation projects for the Southern Pacific interests. These will be used as soon as properly placed under water for the purpose of colonization.

"The west coast of Mexico is very fertile, has similar climate and conditions to those in Southern California and is merely awaiting the development on a large scale, that will settle hundreds of Americans in the territory. It will bring greater riches to the pioneers than has the Canadian country, which has had a boom for about six years."

GARFORD TELLS OF MOTOR TOUR.

Crossed Continent to Greet
the Machines He Built.

P. A. Lord and the Factory
Man Welcome Autoists.

Reception Tendered the Tourists by Citizens.

A. L. Garford, who built the Garford cars, crossed the continent to greet the plucky motor pilots at the finish. He is in Los Angeles to enjoy the honors now being heaped on the men who made the fierce run over the Santa Fe trail.

This man, who has seen the motor car in the building is out and out in favor of a national boulevard. He says ocean-to-ocean travel is becoming more popular and he believes this tour is the first of many that will mark this coming season.

The big factory man met P.
A. Lord, the local Garford agent at Whittier, and the two journeyed into Los Angeles.
Last night at a banquet in the Hotel Alexandria, the autoists were honored and toasted by business men and prominent autoists of this city who are interested in motor touring across the United States.

One of the features of the Garford tour was the fact that the man who built the cars was here to see them at the finish. A. L. Garford of the Garford factory, where the cars are built, was one of the first to crash each motor driver by the hand
when the cars ended the long run.

The tour has made a decided impression on many citizens. No man was more interested in the run than Garford.

In speaking of the tour the factory
man was enthusiastic.

GARFORD ENTHUSIASTIC.

"This tour has opened my eyes to the many possibilities of the motor car," said A. L. Garford last night.
"The Garfords are strictly stock machines delivered from our factory to the purchasers. The Raymond & Whitcomb Company conducted the tour, but the automobile world, and myself in particular, have learned many lessons by this long run.

"Nothing that I could say would express what I feel with regard to the showing of the cars. Of course it is hard for me to talk about my own product, but the Garfords only did what I expected they would. The

BLUE AND WHITE BEATS
POLY IN FAST GAME.

Patterson Prances Past Posts for Only Score of Thrilling Contest Before Biggest Crowd of Season—Mechanics Succeed in Holding Victors to Nothing to Nothing During First Half.

BEFORE five or six thousand howling students at Harvard field, Los Angeles High School lowered the colors of Polytechnic at Rugby football in one of the most thrilling contests ever played between two High Schools. After a nothing to nothing score in the first half, Fred Patterson, the brilliant little half-back for the Blue and White, dodged across the line from about a five-yard scrum and scored the one try which meant victory and defeat. Cass kicked a perfect goal making the total 5 to 0.

There was a great deal of delay in getting the game started. In the first place the referees who had agreed to serve kicked over the traces at the last minute and refused to go on. Both teams were willing for either man to do the work and finally Mitchell was persuaded to take the job.

While all this was going on the two managers of the teams with Dunn and Oliver of L. A. High School were debating the question of scholarship of five Polytechnic men. The principals of both schools had agreed to play the game under the regular rules of scholarship in vogue in the city schools.

Five of the Polytechnic men were cut out by this rule by their principal, Mr. Dunn, but Will Henry, the captain, took things into his own hands and refused to play at all unless everybody played. Principal Dunn did not seem to care to take any responsibility in the matter and things were at a standstill until Housh of the Los Angeles High arrived.

When matters were explained to him, he said: rather than disappoint
the large crowds who were all anxious for the game he would be willing to suspend the rules for the game, so the contest started amid howls of delight from the entire bleachers.

GARFORD CARS COMPLETE
OCEAN-TO-OCEAN TOUR.

Forty Horse-power Cars Cross the Santa Fe Trail, Climb Fierce Mountain Passes and Cross the Desert on the Long Hike from Sea to Sea on the Most Strenuous Run Ever Planned Over the Southern Route.

BY BERT C. SMITH.

MOTOR history was recorded yesterday afternoon when the Garford cars completed the 4200-mile motor tour across the United States.
Four five-passenger touring cars, with eighteen tourists, completed the run from sea to sea and proved that an automobile tour across the United States is possible at least six times a year.

Five plucky motor pilots drove their forty-horse-power cars over the Santa Fe trail. This route can be followed from New York to Los Angeles over the exact trail mapped out by the Garford cars on their strenuous cross-continental hike.

The southern route was traversed in winter. The autoists declare it is open all the year around. A. L. Garford, who built the Garford cars, was in Los Angeles to greet his motor cars after they had finished the drive over the Santa Fe trail. He believes it is possible to begin automobile touring across the United States at any season of the year.

No mechanical trouble and not an accident marred the tour.
Though the roads are fierce in many places, the cars came through with nothing but tire trouble to annoy the drivers. This run has attracted attention all over this country. The cars will be kept in Los Angeles.

Four Garford touring cars, covered with the dust of the long Santa Fe trail, finished the ocean-to-ocean tour in front of The Times office at 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon, after one of the most strenuous automobile runs on record. With eighteen tired, but happy tourists the cars rolled down Spring street to the finish of the transcontinental tour, with thousands of spectators cheering plucky femen and the men who have crossed the continent together.

For the first time in motor history it has been demonstrated that the Santa Fe trail is the logical course for a national highway, and every tourist who completed the Garford run is in favor of commencing work on the route to time as the other machines plugged on to the finish.

The last day's run proved one of the hardest of the entire trip. The 4200-mile tour was severe, but the autoists were so tired yesterday that it was almost impossible to get the drivers to hustle. As a result the first car was forced to wait from five to ten minutes at the other machines plugged on to the finish. The cars reached this city, however, almost at the minute on schedule time.

It was dusk when the cars reached Whittier, and A. L. Garford, the man who designed and built the machines, was there to greet the ocean-to-ocean tourists. Garford glanced quickly at the dust-covered cars and then smiled.
It was enough. He had seen them at their best. The same cars that had been delivered from the Garford factory had crossed the hardest route
in the United States.

MAKE GOOD.
After satisfying himself that the machines had made good, Garford turned with his bandoliers from 1912 car and piloted the machines back into this city. It was a big factory man bringing the best of his product to town in the most novel manner. Garford was leading the march of triumph, which his machines had made possible.

P. A. Lord met the tourists at San Diego yesterday. The final run was arranged quickly, and with the help of H. E. Ashton, the final log was completed. Early yesterday morning the cars left the Hotel Grant at San Diego. The coast road was never in such wretched shape as at present.
Ten miles from Oceanside the roughest stretch of the last day's run was struck. Ned Lord was driving the pilot Garford and he slowed down for the fierce cuts and deep bumps.
Ashton was in the car with A. L.
Westgard, who has piloted the autoists over the Santa Fe trail.

"When do we reach your road house?" inquired the manager of the tour.

As he spoke the big Garford
"Forty" was bouncing and rocking like a great ship on a rough sea. The road was fierce, but Ashton only smiled.

"Is this the worst you have to encounter?" he asked again.

Then as the Garford swung on with a spurt which made them look like Phoenix racing Ashton remarked:
"Why, your worst roads are bound-yards for us."

NO TROUBLE.
Mrs. Westgard, who made the journey, declares the cars have never been halted for mechanical trouble since the start, and says the entire list of machines that left New York are here. She says the route is the worst ever, but the work of the Garfords is above reproach.

The Garford cars were followed closely by a big truck. The Prairie Schoolboy completed the run last night with every car in control ready for the welcome which awaits the autoists who have had such a fight with the roads.

The Garford party left New York
October 2 and has been journeying

FACTS, FEATURES AND FANCIES FOR WOMEN AND MEN

OLIVE GRAY

DAILY BEAUTY HINT: The Specialist gives the following hint for the treatment of a red nose: If you are one of those who prefer treatment to any other, try hot water as a remedy for a red nose. The cause of redness in this member is poor circulation—a stoppage of blood in the veins of the nose—and the application of very hot water, held over the nose by means of a thick cloth, will stimulate the circulation and eventually eradicate the trouble. The application must be HOT, not merely warm, as warm applications are only relaxing rather than stimulating.

You are the mother of children, and if you have any small children, you can "scrape up" any sort of things in your neighborhood, do with them as you like, or, to that end, Christmas toy opening on Saturday.

It will be a great event in Toyland, and I would not like to miss it, although I have almost everything I need for Christmas.

When you get up to a whole dollar, you can be really lavish in your giving. The best of it is that, anyhow, at the special store of which I speak—the things which you can buy for so small an amount are tasteful, instead of being the horrors that have sometimes been placed before buyers for small amounts.

The World in Miniature. I could talk all day about the toys in that wonderful display, for it is a world in miniature. There is everything which one uses or cares for, in miniature to the play time of the little ones. Every kind of furniture, from the finest of red, to mahogany, every utensil, every household invention, every kind of animal or vehicle. It is, in fact, the Land of Heart's Desire for the little ones.

Newest Corsets. "Fitting like a glove" is no joke, when it comes to these new corsets. They are made from a meshed material which conforms to the figure, just as does the underwear of that material, the skin. Ease and beauty of line is the obvious result.

BENEFIT IS SUCCESS. The St. Vincent de Paul Society reports very gratifying results from the musical and literary entertainment given at Blanchard Hall on Tuesday night under the auspices of the Catholic Benevolent Association for the benefit of the poor. A large portion of the success was due to Miss Myrtle Ouellet, the harpist, who volunteered her services and broke an important engagement to play on this philanthropic occasion.

Focus of Interest. The great interest taken by Los Angeles people in things artistic was evident yesterday when hundreds of men and women visited the second annual exhibit of the California Art Club in the art gallery at Blanchard Hall. The exhibition was formally opened to artists and their friends Wednesday night, but the attendance was so great that half of those who were invited did not have an opportunity to enter the hall. Yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, the gallery was opened to the general public, and there was a constant stream of people going in and out of the gallery throughout the day.

This exhibition is the most pretentious ever given in the Southwest. Most of the productions are the work of local artists, though a considerable number are the work of the best-known easterners, sent here especially for this exhibit.

The four walls of the gallery present every imaginable phase of color, light and form, dealing with a wide variety of themes. Beside Brown's picture, "The Desert," with the sunlight on the snow of the distant hills, is Frank's "Mossy Cascade," a production on the order of old school. The latter picture is the work of an artist now past 70 years of age, who still holds somewhat to the old style in his adherence to detail.

Mannheim's paintings attracted much attention, particularly "The Magic Pond," and "The Water Nymph." "Old House of Manley," by Helena Dunlap, presents a remarkable effect in lights and shadows, and the beauty of the Capistrano Hills is effectively transferred to canvas, by Foster. "The Lifting Fog," a watercolor study of San Francisco Bay, by Arthur B. Dodge, was the object of favorable comment and attention, and the bust of Charles P. Avery by Julius Bracken Wendt, form a notable part of the exhibit.

Other contributors to the exhibit are William Ritchie, David S. Smith, J. H. Sharp, R. D. Shaw, Jack W. Smith, J. G. Stark, Gardner Symons, A. G. Conner, W. L. Jordan, Norman A. Clair, Charles P. Avery, Frank Blüchert, Benjamin C. Brown, W. L. Cheever, Val Costello, Arthur B. Dodge, A. E. Kilpatrick, Frederick R. Miller, R. F. Moche, and Hanson Putt.

THE TRIAL GOES ON. Federal Court Overrules Attack on Thompson Indictment but Another Objection Follows. The attack of the defense on the validity of the indictment under which Fred H. Thompson is being tried in the United States District Court failed yesterday.

In an exhaustive opinion Judge Welborn ruled that the grand jury in returning the second indictment was not disqualified to act because it had returned the first indictment. No sooner was the dock cleared for the witnesses, than another objection to the indictment was presented, in that it did not charge that the defendant Thompson had received the money from Altorre, with fraudulent intent. The objection made some impression upon the court, and it was agreed that the taking of testimony should begin, but that the matter should be passed on later.

The witnesses of the afternoon were M. J. Cunningham, cashier of the National Bank of Bismarck, Ark.; A. D. Jones, Don W. Carlton, Walter H. Lutz, R. B. Moore, and Sol Elvete, employees of the First National Bank of this city.

LETTERS TO "THE TIMES"

A Worker's View. LOS ANGELES, Nov. 23.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I have had a great deal of experience in city affairs in every part of the globe and have resided in this city long enough to judge of the civic administration here under the Alexander regime and have no hesitation in saying that it compares favorably with that of any city I have lived in, and a great deal better than many.

SAGE TEA DARKENS THE HAIR AND RESTORES COLOR TO GRAY HAIR

There is nothing new about the idea of using sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our great-grandmothers kept their locks soft, dark and glossy by using a "sage tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance they made a brew of sage leaves and applied it to their hair, with wonderful beneficial effect.

Electric Talks No. 16

FUTURE BOND ISSUES NEEDED FOR PARKS, DRIVES, RAILROADS

Instead of needlessly expending $5,500,000 or more of bond money for an electric distributing plant, would it not be wiser for the city to use this handsome sum in the expansion of its park and boulevard systems, for the contemplated municipal railroad, for harbor improvements, and on various other projects for a greater and better city? The bonding power of the city almost has reached its limit. To reduce that power by $5,500,000 or more, for an unnecessary purpose, would be folly.

JUSTICE BINDS HIM OVER. Herbert Must Answer to Superior Court for Party Squad's Alleged Shortcomings. R. H. Herbert, former member of the police party squad, who was arrested several months ago on the charge of accepting bribes from Mabel Young and Mabel Merrill, in exchange for alleged protection, was bound over to the Superior Court in the sum of $1000 by Justice Cassidy, yesterday afternoon. His preliminary examination, lasted two days, almost all of yesterday being devoted to arguments.

It can be shown that, by leasing or renting the existing distributing plants from their owners, the city would have an adequate system for the disposal of the aqueduct power, and at the same time would be able to exercise the right of controlling the system and of regulating the price at which electricity might be sold to consumers.

This plan would place no heavy burden on the taxpayers. Under it there would be no long wait for the building of a new system, and, better still, there would be no wait for profits. Wiring arrangements would remain as they are, in streets, in homes, in stores and in factories. The only change would be that the city would be the purveyor of electricity, instead of the present owners of the plants.

The present rate of seven cents per kilowatt hour is much lower than is charged in most eastern cities. Voluntary reductions on the part of supplying companies, together with reductions made by city ordinance, have brought about this desirable condition.

PATRIOTIC GERMANS TO WORK FOR ALEXANDER.

Carl Entenmann, 24 Joseph Street.

GERMAN-AMERICAN citizens of Los Angeles know under which flag they wish to be governed because of their intense patriotism, their love for law and order, and particularly because of the riotous disturbances at the Alexander meeting at the Auditorium last week, an organization has been formed by them to aid the Citizens' Committee in its campaign for the re-election of Mayor Alexander and the ticket.

While many of the members of the new organization are not affiliated with the Good Government organization and disagree with it on many things they all feel that the prosecution of the great municipal projects and the maintenance of law and order are common ground for all to meet on and forget other differences. It is in this spirit that the organization has been formed and its membership will lend its best efforts for the success of the Alexander ticket.

Notice of the formation of the club was given in a written communication to the Citizens' Committee yesterday as follows:

Chairman Citizens' Committee, Los Angeles, Cal.

Dear Mr. Lee: The undersigned voters take pleasure in advising you that we have organized a German-American Citizens Club, and we do hereby pledge our support and efforts to the Citizens' Committee to assist in the election of George Alexander for Mayor, and to further pledge our loyalty toward the maintenance of law and order and the good name of our city.

[Signed]

FRIED DETMERS, Vice-President.
DR. JOSEPH KURTZ, Vice-President.
MAJ. E. F. O. KLOPKE, Vice-President.

Executive Committee: Gabriel E. Light, E. C. Hauser, Fr. Odemar, C. J. Rode, L. A. Hauser, John Doherty, C. Schaefer, C. J. Kuch, Carl Haas, Emil E. Ruediger, Emil Redel, Julius Hauser, Perry W. Weidner, Fred W. Stein and E. Ellender.

MAYOR TALKS PLAINLY TO COLORED PEOPLE.

A VIGOROUS refutation of the boasts of the Socialists as to what they will do for the colored people of Los Angeles if elected on December 6, was the theme of a clear-cut speech which Mayor Alexander delivered at the Alexander Church at No. 1115 Wilson street, last night. He based his remarks upon a circular issued by the opposition and carrying the impression that if the Socialists were given the reins of government next month they would see to it that the colored people fared better.

"The Socialists are trying to make you believe if they are put in power they can regulate and control certain private interests," said the Mayor. "Any person who knows anything will tell you they can't. The opposition is trying to deceive you for the sake of your votes. A candidate who will get votes by making false promises is not entitled to be elected.

"The Socialists have been making all kinds of promises. They know they can't fill them, but that does not make any difference. They go right along, promising just the same. I am not making any promises—yes, I am making one. I promise to continue in the future just as I have in the past, doing my best to give you the best administration in the country.

"They talk about you being covered down by big interests. I don't know of any of you people in such a condition, do you?"

The Mayor waited patiently for an answer, but none came. Then he resumed:

"The Socialist ticket is a kind of a sham and a fraud. It is only one-third Socialist and two-thirds labor union. I think you will find that only one of their candidates are Socialists. The rest are labor union men. This is a union labor town like San Francisco, you people will not prosper much. You will only get what is left after the Socialists and the union men have been given all the good jobs. You won't be made any more welcome in the stores than you are now. Don't forget that my good friends. This circular perhaps makes some of you think differently, but it is only good to fool you.

"Los Angeles has never more prosperous than now. There was never more building being done than up to the time of this campaign. Why not let well enough alone? They say when they get into office—but I don't much think they will land there—that they are going to raise the credit of the city two or three hundred millions of dollars. They can't do that except by increasing taxation and expenses, and then you will feel it. Alexander is not a man who will let well enough alone. He wants to see what we are going to do with this Socialist question. Then how do they expect to sell home after they get in? Answer that if you can."

The Mayor touched upon the riotous scenes a week ago at the Auditorium, declaring the Socialists would elect that class of men to rule the city, and that mob violence would prevail.

"I am not deserving of such treatment as I received at that meeting," he said. "I am an old man, the Mayor of your city. If they won't respect my hair, nose and the Chief Executive of your city, what in heaven's name, I ask, will they observe when they get into power? I do not deserve such treatment because I have always been honest and fair. The opposition has tried its best to find something against me which to play on their fears, but they have not succeeded. They have tried to use a magnifying glass, but it did them no good.

"In the next two years, if we go back into office—and I think we will—we will spend $5,000,000 on water

TWO THOUSAND CITATIONS OUT.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY SIFTING REGISTRATION LIST.

Responses Are to Be Made to the City Council Next Thursday and Failure to Respond Means Cancellation of Names on the Record. Lodging-houses Asked for Lists.

Citations for 2000 alleged illegal registrations will be served today by attaches of the District Attorney's office, under the personal supervision of Chief Deputy Hanna and Detective Browne.

These citations have been made returnable before the members of the City Council, sitting as an election board, on Thursday, December 1. It is declared that those who do not respond to these summonses will be canceled on the Great Register and will not be permitted to vote on December 5.

These citations were decided upon at a conference held yesterday in the office of Hanna, by W. G. Van Pelt and J. M. Walker of the Citizens' Committee; H. J. Leland, County Clerk, and Detective Browne.

The District Attorney's office reported yesterday it had made further investigation and discovered that it had ascertained that many so-called fraudulent registrations were legal.

W. A. Engle, vice-president of the Federation of Labor, sent to the detective department of the District Attorney's office a list of 21 names yesterday, asking that they be investigated. He said some of them had registered as Socialists. Up to 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon it had been found that 11 of the registrations were illegal.

A number of hotel and rooming-house keepers whose places are under suspicion as being used for illegal registrations, were notified yesterday to file at once with the District Attorney's office a list of every lodger they had on November 4. The places under investigation are:

Hotel, No. 117 1/2 East First street; house conducted by J. H. Bohn at No. 142 1/2 North Main street; rooming house run by John E. Ray, No. 123 1/2 East First street; Robert Peterson's place at No. 104 1/2 North Los Angeles street; the Snow hotel, Sixth and Flower streets, and rooming houses run by Mrs. Y. O'Hannah and S. A. Siddall at No. 327 1/2 East First street, and No. 123 North San Pedro street.

Some of the notices received from these places late yesterday afternoon indicated that the landlords had been careless in their first itemization of guests, and that many of the names of those who were living at these places whose names do not appear on any list, although they are on the Great Register.

Leland has ruled that employees of boats running in and out of the harbor at San Pedro cannot vote at the election on December 5, unless they can show that they are bona fide residents of this city. The mere fact that they run on the boats does not entitle them to vote. The crews of the Yale and Harvard, registered vaguely from "East San Pedro" have been canceled.

The Council will meet in special session at 3 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of arranging for the return of the 2000 citations to be served today, and other matters in connection with the registration that may come before it.

Men and women are working day and night, according to information from the District Attorney's office, in checking up the registration books, and the detective force of the county has been instructed to make an effort to get them on the ground that touch this cope with the situation and make all the inquiries deemed necessary.
